Panhellenic Awards
Excellence in Service 2011

The Excellence in Service award recognizes an organization that has shown a commitment to serving the community and participating actively in the philanthropy efforts of the Inter/National organization. One-time events, ongoing projects, average community service hours per member and letters of recommendation will all be considered.

4 PAGE LIMIT

Eligibility: All Panhellenic organizations are eligible.

- A) List all one-time community service events in which your organization has participated during the past year. Describe each event and who benefited.

- B) List all ongoing community service efforts. Describe each event and who benefited.

- C) Provide AT LEAST one letter of recommendation from a beneficiary of your organization's community service efforts.

- D) Documentation from the beneficiaries of each event is encouraged.

Panhellenic Involvement Cup 2011

The Panhellenic Involvement Cup recognizes an organization that has shown exceptional involvement in the surrounding local and UNT communities. Membership and participation in student organizations, councils and committees will be taken into consideration for this award.

* Please note that volunteerism in the community should be documented in the Excellence in Service Award, not here.

All documentation should reflect only Spring and Fall 2011, not any activities occurring Spring 2012.

Eligibility: All Panhellenic organizations are eligible.

Area 1: Please discuss the chapter's efforts to encourage membership involvement on campus and in the community (i.e. processes in place, chapter expectations, motivation/encouragement techniques, chapter philosophy on involvement, etc.)

Area 2: Please provide a list of members who are involved and in which campus/community organizations they are involved.
